Bonfire Beach Party

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Overview: Sail to the islands for a private bonfire beach party. You set sail on a 46' catamaran named Bel Gato and spend the evening on a remote island beach enjoying this unique adventure.

Q: How long does the tour last?

A: We leave the dock at Marina Puerto Escondido around 5:45 pm and return around 10:00 pm.

Q: How many people can we expect to be with us?

A: There is a maximum of 12 guests and a minimum of 6 guests. If we do not meet the minimum number of guests, we reserve the right to cancel and reschedule or you can receive a full refund. All tours are based on an advance reservation policy, but last-minute walk-ups may be accommodated on a space available basis.

Q: What is included in this tour package?

A: Set sail in the early evening to a beach on the islands of the Loreto National Park. Enjoy a cocktail while we make our way to our destination. After sunset, we drop anchor and the fiesta begins. Reserved just for you is a private beach, a bonfire, unlimited drinks and a great meal.

Q: What activities are included?

A: Enjoy the sunset with new or old friends while sipping your favorite cocktails around the fire pit while your crew serves appetizers and fires up the grill for dinner.

Q: If I am on a special diet, can you accommodate my food needs?

A: While we serve typical North American meals, if you require or desire something different, you are free to bring your own food.

Q: Do you serve alcohol on the tour?

A: We offer premium beer brands, Mexican wines and select mixed drinks throughout the tour. There is no limit, but responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages is a requirement. We do not allow any alcohol brought on board by guests. At the Captain's discretion, if a guest overindulges, the Captain may cut off that guest from any further consumption. This is strictly enforced for the safety of all the guests. The Captain's decision is final.

Q: What are the qualifications of the Staff & crew?

A: We use only licensed professional captains. Your captain will be glad to show you his credentials and tell you how the boat operates. Crew members are experienced at their tasks and the goal of the entire crew is to be sure that you have a safe and enjoyable experience. We have the latest marine safety equipment on board for your safety.

Q: Can anyone take groups to the National Park?

A: The Bel Gato catamaran is one of only a few permitted boats to have access to the islands. The paddle boards are also individually permitted. We comply with all the requirements to operate legally in the National Park and will always follow the rules and do things the right way. It is illegal to operate in the National Park without proper permits.

Q: What can I expect overall, in the way of amenities and what should I bring myself?

A: The trip is all inclusive and you don't really need to bring anything except personal items. We provide beach towels, beach chairs, food and drinks and but some not so obvious amenities that you may appreciate are:

- Private bathrooms with flush toilets & fresh water hot showers
- Air-conditioned Salon area
- Safety of a proven blue-water sailing vessel

Q: What should I wear? What weather conditions should I expect?

A: Typically, you will encounter warm sunny weather. There are times when the wind picks up or it may rain. Most of the time the sea is calm and smooth, but can pick up and get a little choppy. Wear or bring clothing that has good sun protection, hats and sunglasses are a very good idea. We provide sunscreen, but if you bring your own, be sure to bring only a non-aerosol type. Wear soft rubber soled shoes or flip flops. On-board, you can go barefoot, but on the beach, tennis shoes are ideal for hiking around.

Q: What fitness level is required?

A: Depending on your activities, it can range from very easy to difficult. As a minimum, you will need to be able to step off a dock onto a boat, and also step into a small dinghy type from the boat. Unfortunately, we have no provision for handicap equipment.

Q: Are children allowed on this tour?

A: This is an adults only tour. There are too many potential hazards where small child could get hurt.

Q: What is your cancellation policy?

A: If you cancel your reservation more than 24 hours before departure time, we will gladly provide a 100% refund. If you cancel your reservation less than 24 hours before departure time, you will receive a 50% refund. If we are forced to cancel due to weather, insufficient bookings, or any other reason beyond the control of the guest, we will reschedule or provide you a 100% refund.

Q: Is tipping allowed or expected?

A: Our team works hard to provide you with an outstanding experience. If you feel the crew did an exceptional job, a tip of 10-20% is appreciated.
